

Restaurant Owners / Las Palapas

What did you learn?

How did the guest speaker impact your plans?

Operations management is important

This impacts my career plans by being more responsible and organizing work.

Both college and experience are needed to run a business

To improve my people skills.

There are different levels of management.

Owning a business is an option for me.

A corporation is controlled by the board of directors and shareholders.

It makes me want to know more about business and to know people that know business.

Manage people and time, Preparation is key

This impacted my career plans by learning how these franchise restaurants work.

P-TECH School of Business

Benchmark 5: Work Based Learning / P-TECH Lecture Series