SA Food Bank:

Care for seniors, perhaps the most vulnerable population during this outbreak:

- Supplying City of San Antonio's senior centers with food boxes and supplies.
- Adding extra food, supplies to the 10,000+ seniors who receive a Project HOPE box each month.
- Adding extra food, supplies to the 500 homebound seniors who receive a home-delivered box.

Care for children out of school:

- Food Bank service navigators available for calls or to support families with children who need food and other support, 210-431-8326, or visit the Food Bank's website to request help online: www.safoodbank.org/cvprep
- PreK4SA: food and supply distributions at each Center for families.
- Food Bank is reaching out to schools to understand where there are gaps in service and how the Food Bank can fill those gaps.

Catholic Charities:

- "Catholic Charities remains open to serve all people. Volunteers have us crisis ready at our Food Pantries and through our Mobile Relief Unit. If you are in need, please call (210) 226-6178 to be screened to receive basic needs."
