

The annual Yale Book Awards, sponsored by Yale University, recognize outstanding high school juniors for their outstanding personal character, leadership, and intellectual promise. Club members are asked to adopt a school and work with the guidance department to select a student.