

TOK (Theory of Knowledge) TASK

TOK (Theory of Knowledge) Question:

Is imagination a help or hinderance in history and ethics?

TOPIC IDEA: Historical Impacts

Activity:

READ to the STUDENTS

This month is considered Black History Month. Do you even know why it is observed in the month of February? Watch this short 5 min video explaining to students and kids why it is observed this month and think about all the African- Americans who made a significant impact created in history. Do you think their imagination had to first flow through their minds prior to them seeking action in any capacity that made history?

Watch, reflect and then share out with a partner.

Now watch this 2 min video that celebrates the life of one of our very own Texas born Ms. Bessie Coleman who was the first African American woman to earn a pilot's license. After watching the video think about the TOK question posed earlier, her determination and bravery. Discuss with another partner an aspiration or dream of yours and how you will accomplish this task.
