

IB Learner Profile Task- Identify the Traits!

Read to students:

Remembering this month is Black History Month & next is Women's History Month! One of the prominent influential people we hear about is Harriet Tubman. But did you know that is not her original birth name!? She is known for escaping slavery, risking everything to save her family, leading a military raid, championing the cause of women's suffrage and much more. Today you will watch a short snip on Harriet Tubman that speaks of just a handful of her accomplishments which makes her one of America's most courageous heroes. As you watch identify what learner profile traits you see throughout the video she exhibits. In addition reflect on which learner profile you identify most with as we leap forward into Spring.

Activity: Identify with the Trait!

- As they watch, have students work to identify what Learner Profile traits are visible, discussed or inherit.
- Have students complete their reflection on the today's video using the Reflection Page below
- If time allows, have a discussion about the video whole class and their reflections.
